

RAY SCHERER
NBC London correspondent.

JOHN SCALY
State Department correspondent, ABC news.

DAVID SCHOENBRUN Recipient of all major national journalism awards.

CLAY SHAW
New York Times
fendant in JFK conspiracy trial.

DAVID SUSKIND Producer, director and moderator of Open End

SEN. JOSEPH TYDINGS
Democrat, Maryland

SEN. JOHN TONER
Democrat, New York
Republican conservative.

SANDER VANOCUR
NBC news analyst

MARK VAN DOREN
Pulitzer Prize winning poet.

MIKE WALLACE Formerly
CBS News analyst

ANDY WARHOL
The creator of Pop art.

ROBERT WELCH
Founder of the John
Birch Society

ABC CORRESPONDENTS TOUR
An annual event that is always overabundant. This is the ABC team providing a concise wrap-up of this major news events of the year, with a full analysis of events.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS FORUM
Moderated by ALEXANDER GABRIEL, is a unique opportunity to hear ambassadors to the UN speak in a non-diplomatic environment. As moderated by Alexander Gabriel, it is a unique opportunity to hear from any two countries of interest to your group.

Belonging Arts Department

ATELJE 212

Yugoslav repertory company, presents Ubu Roi, Waiting for Godot, Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, and Boes The Tailor. Will tour the United States in 1970.

BLACK ARTS THEATRE

Created by LEROI JONES who has built a repertory company from young and black artists in New York, New Jersey, and gives them a "stage" from which to express their art.

NATIONAL GREEK THEATRE

The Phekon Theatre, on tour January, February, March 1970. This large repertory company will give the Greek people of the United States a chance in their own specially constructed open theatre.

NATIONAL PANTOMIME THEATRE

Featuring Kenyon and Suzanne Martin. These two very talented mimers have studied with Marcel Marceau, toured the capitals of Europe, and have been acclaimed by critics in the U.S. and Europe.

OSSIE DAVIS & RUBY DEE

Dramatic stars of stage, screen and TV, present an evening of vignettes from Rashin in the Sun and other hit plays in which they have starred.

ANNE SEXTON & HER KIND

Another dimension has been added to the poetry of Anne Sexton. Special compositions, and Chamber-rock, provide a background for Miss Sexton's reading of selections from her new book of poetry. The Klezmer group play men playing drums, flute, guitar, clavinet and bass.

YUGOSLAV NATIONAL FOLK CHORUS

(Slovenski Orkeo)

Presents a rare and exclusive collection of Slavic folk music. There are songs of the Montenegrin, Serbian, Slovenian, and Croatian regions. Adriatic, the border country of all the states that are now Yugoslav, and much of this new music that is a blend of the past and future.

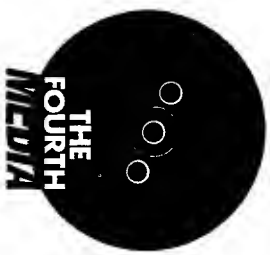

AMERICAN PROGRAM BUREAU

presenting the world's distinguished lecturers

59 Temple Place, Boston, Mass. 02111

Telephone (617) 452-0090 Cable: Lecture

AMERICAN PROGRAM BUREAU
1969-70

STUART ALSOP
Editor of syndicated
Newsweek columnist.

CLYDE BARNES
Dance and drama
critic, New York Times.

DAVID BRINKLEY
News correspondent.

ARLENE FRANCIS Broadway and TV star.

VIRGINIA GRAHAM
Housewife and moderator of CBS talk.

BEN KARL MUNTZ
Physician, South Dakota.

SEN. EDMUND E. MUSKIE
Democrat, Maine.

SAUL BELLOW
Author of best selling novels.

DICK O'GORMAN
Night club personality and civil rights leader.

NORMAN MAILER
Author, winner of the Pulitzer Prize.

FLOYD MCKISSICK Former director of the NAACP, founder of South City.

RALPH NADLER
Congressman, author of "Ultimate
At Any Speed."

REV. CHANNING PHILLIPS
Pastor, D. C.
Housing Authority.

REP. ADAM
CLAYTON POWELL
Congressman from New York.

DREW PEARSON
Internationally known
political columnist.

ERIC HOFFER, M.D.
Psychiatrist and author of "The Stranger in the Parade."

LEO J. RYAN
Congressman, author of "The Day After Tomorrow."

REV. CHANNING PHILLIPS
Pastor, D. C.
Housing Authority.

REP. ADAM
CLAYTON POWELL
Congressman from New York.

DREW PEARSON
Internationally known
political columnist.

SEN. BIRCH BAYH
Senator, Indiana.

DR. CLARK KERR
Noted California education leader, Carnegie Institute.

HERB KAPLOW
NBC White House correspondent.

REP. ADAM
CLAYTON POWELL
Congressman from New York.

DREW PEARSON
Internationally known
political columnist.

DR. JOYCE BROTHERS
Noted psychologist.

AL CAPPE
Sculptor and creator of the "A-Team."

HENRY MORGAN
TV personality and humourist.

RAY SANYAL
Noted lecturer on Indian music.

REV. DOBRICAN
Olympic Champion,
Gold Medal winner.

JUDITH CRIST
Nationally known movie critic.

HANS CONRARD
Stage, screen and TV performer.

AGNES MOOREHEAD
Star of Broadway.

ROGER MUDD
CBS News commentator.

PIERRE SALINGER
White House Press Secretary, author of "The President's Men."

DICK SAINS
Author of "The Shadow of the Past."

JOHN CARRADINE

A favorite of the American stage and screen, Mr. Carradine is devoting himself to the Elizabethan theatre with an impressive repertoire of Shakespearean roles performed in recital. He also gives less formal readings, selected from the best and most classic work in the English language.

JAMES CASS

Education Editor of Saturday Review, he discusses the educational revolution, and the student crisis on the American campus today.

HAROLD CLURMAN

Director, writer, and dramatic critic for major magazines and newspapers in the U. S. and Europe. How to see a Play is one of his most requested topics.

SIDNEY COHEN, M.D.

Director of the Division of Narcotic Addiction and Drug Abuse at the National Institute of Mental Health in Chevy Chase, Maryland. Students of all persuasions on this subject have found Dr. Cohen to be an open minded and fair adversary, a man of exceptional understanding of the problem.

CONG. JOHN CONYERS, JR.

Democrat and first Negro member of the House Judiciary Committee. Mr. Conyers was elected in 1966 to his second term, with 84% of the vote, the fourth highest percentage of any congressman.

ROGER CONKLIN

One of the most entertaining speakers in the field of Oceanography. As one of the critically important new fields of science, it is also an area replete with possibilities for adventure. Mr. Conklin brings this all to life in the reporting of new discoveries

LT. COL. BILL CORSON, RET.

Author of The Betrayal, a military report on our involvement in Vietnam, and one of the central commentators in the anti-war documentary: Year of the Pig.

DR. CLEO DAWSON

Lecturer, wit, and psychologist. Dr. Dawson has appeared frequently on the Merv Griffin show, the Johnny Carson show, and popular radio talk-shows. She is a charming combination of humor, warmth, and intellect.

TRAN VAN DINH

Graduate of Hanoi University, a native of Hue, and former Acting Ambassador of South Vietnam to the U.S. Tran Van Dinh is the most published Vietnamese writer in America.

MILTON ESTEROW

New York Times Art Critic, and Director of the Kennedy Art Gallery, Mr. Esterow is an authority on Art for the Young Investor, Art Forgeries, and Forgeries That Can Become Art.

JOHN HENRY FAULK

American folklore historian, humorist, writer, teacher, and author of Fear on Trial, the story of his six year court fight against blacklisting in the entertainment world at the time of the McCarthy hearings.

BOB FELLER

Hall of Fame Baseball Star. Lectures on: Sports in a Democracy, and America in International Sports.

ALEXANDER GABRIEL

Moderator of the International Affairs Forum, and Dean of the UN press corps. Mr. Gabriel is Bureau Chief of the UN Transradio News Agency, and one of the most experienced newsmen in international diplomatic circles.

DONALD GATCH, M.D.

The crusading young South Carolina doctor whose personal efforts are having a major effect on coming legislation for a program that will help eradicate malnutrition and starvation in rural areas of the U.S.

JAMES GERMANO

27 year old Director of Marathon House, a "tribe-like paternalistic community" for the rehabilitation of drug addicts. A former addict, Mr. Germano has achieved a spectacular success, and the respect of professional and non-professional groups.

VERA GLASER

Washington Bureau Chief for the North American Newspaper Alliance, Miss Glaser covers all government news centers, the White House, and news of particular interest to women. She is a frequent guest on Meet the Press.

REP. CURTIS GRAVES

One of the three negroes who integrated the Texas legislature, and whose bills are being passed although two years ago he was snubbed by white colleagues. He now represents a responsible force in Texas politics.

FATHER JAMES GROPPY

One of the first religious figures to take an active part in the Civil Rights movement, he has been a militant leader of demonstrations, and is an impressive spokesman who continues his Civil Rights fight in his home state of Wisconsin.

CHINUA ACHEBE
Most honored African writer, winner of all leading literary awards in his country, and best known in the United States for Man of the People. He is regarded by many as the Hemingway of Africa.

STELLA ADLER
Actress and one of the great dramatic coaches, a woman whose own talent has influenced the careers of countless stars of stage, screen, and TV.

ALEXANDER ALLEN
Eastern Regional Director of the National Urban League; Sociologist; distinguished observer of the urban crisis in the major cities of the east coast and throughout urban America.

SAUL ALINSKY
Director of the Industrial Areas Foundation, a group that has organized and inspired a "master of helping communities discover how to serve themselves."

JACK ANDERSON
Co-author with Drew Pearson of Washington Merry-Go-Round, international syndicate for Parade Magazine. Mr. Anderson is also the author of The Case Against Congress, a national best seller during 1968.

DR. HERBERT APTEK
Marxist historian and Director of the American Institute for Marxist Studies, a center for studies on Marxism and US Policy. Writes on Marxist Critique and other topics.

T-GRACE ATKINSON
Feminist and youthful educator whose goal is to emancipate the lives, ideas and work of women everywhere. Speaks on radical feminism.

RED AUERBACH
Coach of the Boston Celtics for 16 years, for whose guidance he is praised, and whose formidable record in the history of professional sport. Topics: Diplomacy and Sports; Image of the United States Abroad.

BILL BAIRD
Campaigner for legal reforms in state and national abortion laws. He is a hard-fighting and dedicated crusader in this field, and the Director-founder of the Parents Aid Society.

DR. MURRAY BAKER
Psychologist, author of What To Do Until the Psychiatric Court, one of the most entertaining speakers and entertainers available.

DR. ALES BIEBLER
Yugoslav Permanent Representative to the U.N. and President of the World Federation of the Order of National Hero, and has been closely associated with the highest echelons of Government in Yugoslavia for 27 years.

FRANK BLAIR
Star newsmen of the Today show, Mr. Blair's news is the most listened to of any other single newsmen on morning network TV.

AMBASSADOR CHARLES BOHLEN
Former Deputy Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs, Mr. Bohlen is a Career Diplomat, the highest rank in the Foreign Service. He has been our ambassador to Paris and Moscow, and is one of a "passing genre of Soviet-affairs experts who mixed hardheaded analysis with personal involvement."

TOM BRADEN
California newspaper publisher, former assistant to the Director of the CIA, Allen W. Dulles, Mr. Braden is now co-author with Frank Markiewicz of a syndicated column on Washington D. C.

HAYWOOD HALE BROWN
Presently Sports Essayist on the CBS evening news, and a weekly commentator on news of the week. His life is a mix of diverse careers. Among his achievements a book, play, and theatricals, but he prefers his role as Sports Essayist.

CLAUDE BROWN
Author of Man-child in the Promised Land, one of the most revealing books ever written about childhood in Harlem, and the reform schools of New York State.

ABRAHAM BRUMBERG
Specialist and analyst of the Soviet, East European, and Middle Eastern political scene, Mr. Brumberg is associated with the USA. He is a well known writer in this field, and a speaker of wit, as well as authority.

RUSS BURGESS
Parapsychologist, he lectures on the mystery and drama of ESP. Mr. Burgess is also a charming individual whose study of ESP enables him to establish an even more personal contact with audiences.

VICTOR RIESEL
The hard labor news columnist, the survivor of attempts to silence him. Mr. Riesel continues his expose' of underworld and Communist infiltration of labor unions.

JOHN ROCK, M.D.
Clinical Professor of Gynecology at the University of California Medical School. He founded the Roca Obstetric Clinic, Inc. in Brooklyn, Mass. in 1968. Dr. Rock is the recipient of the Lasker Award of the Planned Parenthood Federation in America and other citations.

DR. JERRY ROSENBERG
Author of The Death of Privacy has written the definitive book on the new era of Data banks which house a detailed dossier on every American citizen — without his knowledge, consent or right of recall.

JERRY RUBIN
Project director of the October '67 demonstration at the Pentagon, member of the Vietnam Day Committee in Berkeley (where he ran for mayor and received 20% of the vote); is presently under indictment by Federal Grand Jury for conspiracy to cause riots at the Democratic Convention.

MIGUEL RUBIO
Protégé of Segovia, has been acclaimed by American students during four hours of colleges and universities. He offers impressive selections of classical Spanish guitar compositions.

MARK RUDD
Leader of SDS and the student riots at Columbia University, is a brilliant student who puts it all the student side of the story be heard.

W.D. SNODGRASS
Pulitzer Prize winning poet and a professor of English. Mr. Snodgrass is a writer with a special gift of communication whether reading his poetry, teaching, or talking with his audience.

THOMAS G. SORESENSEN
Author of The Word War, The Story of American Propaganda, 1793-1954. Director of the Center for the Study of California at Berkeley. He speaks on Bad Day at Generation Gap.

REP. LEWIS STOKES
First black congressman from Ohio, and first black legislator named to the House Un-American Activities Committee.

GERALD SCHAFLY
One of the most exciting speakers in America, instructor of Sociology at Boston University, and author of Chosen People. Said, "I am an active and lives in the ghetto some minutes of the east coast. 'Driving the whites out of the ghetto will solve nothing.'"

ANNE SEXTON
Pulitzer Prize winning poetess, and performer of her most dramatic and revealing verse. Her latest book, Love Poems was published in spring 1968.

ALBERT SHANKER
President of the United Federation of Teachers; Board of Trustees — Center for Urban Education; and numerous educational organizations.

CONG. CHARLES L. WELTON
The congressman who said, in October 1967, "I will give up my office before I give up my principles." His story is a public-in-courage of an individual decision. He is running to politics as candidate for Mayor of Atlanta.

REV. WERNMONT
One of the more talented free-lance teachers — from mental disciplines — to develop an elephantine memory — to genuinely inspirational talks of interest to schools, colleges, religious groups and fraternal organizations.

KENNETH WOODWARD
Religion Editor of Newsweek Magazine. Mr. Woodward is an astute observer of the revolution in religion and, in particular, the Catholic Church.

I. THOMAS UNGERTLENDER, M.D.
Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, UCLA Medical Center in Los Angeles, was formerly Chief of Psychiatry at the University of California, San Diego, and California. He has special studies into the side effects of LSD.

KURT VONNEGUT, JR.
Science-fiction writer, author of Slaughterhouse Five, The Sirens of Titan, and Welcome to the Monkey House. This great modern satirist lectures on the problems of ethical men of science such as the virtuous physicists who refused to work on weapons development.

HOWARD ZINN
Boston University professor, author, advocate of the causes of racial equality, draft resistance and Vietnam withdrawal. Zinn, a WWII bombardier, campaigns against all aspects of American bombing in Vietnam.

JAMES PERRY
Author of The New Politics (the politics of manipulation) and senior editor of the National Observer.

ROGER PRICE
Publisher of How To Be A Jewish Mother, writer, actor, and cartoonist, Roger Price is funny about everything from Aristophanes to elephants — but especially about himself, the man next door, and you.

CHARLES QUINN
The NBC political correspondent who has traveled many a campaign trail. He has watched candidates of both parties for over two decades, and is an astute observer of the political American.

MAX RAFFERTY
Superintendent and Director of Public Education in California, one of the most controversial educators in the U.S.

HARRY RASKY
Mr. Rasky is a man for all media, and has won every award for television and radio in North America. His most recent Emmy winner was Hill of Kings, a drama-documentary of Westminster Abbey.

PHAM KHAC RAVU
Former Ambassador to Washington from Viet Nam. He was at one time the District Governor of North Vietnam, and represented his country at the Security Council in 1964. He is eminently qualified to speak for his people.

BILL RUSSELL
Sportsman of the Year, Celtics coach and successor to RED AUBREACH. He has led his team to their 10th world championship in the 12 years he has been a Celtic player.

JOHN SACK
Author of M, the story of M Communist, and Vietnam, he is a frequent guest commentator for ABC, and a contributing editor to Esquire. Mr. Sack is an incisive observer of the American way with war.

MARLENE SANDERS
ABC News Correspondent who has closely covered the California political scene: White House social life and weddings, as well as the war in Vietnam, and the student riots at Columbia University. Miss Sanders is one of the most engaging and feminine speakers in the news media.

RALPH SCHOENMAN
Former Secretary to Lord Bertrand Russell, recently returned from his second visit to Czechoslovakia, gives a detailed and comprehensive report on the student revolt, its meaning and its goals.

BUDD SCHULBERG
Famous wit and humorist, author of The Mad Men, Johnny Rotten, and On the Waterfront. He is now the director of the Writers Workshop, and Douglas House Theatre.

DAVID SILVER
Multi-faced English talent — "Mr. Silver" became an overnight TV success, a playwright, performer, lecturer, critic, expatriate, on Desert, Dad & Dave, Exiles, by LSD, How to Live, How to Die, and other subjects of importance in the campus culture.

JEAN SHEPHERD
Surely one of the most entertaining men on radio, he is the author of In God We Trust, All Others Pay Cash. The Jean Shepherd wit is known to blather, but his humor is keen. He is the winner of Playboy's Humor/Satire Award.

DELPHINE SNEY
Educational TV producer. Mrs. Sney is Sierra Leonean by birth, British by education, and is now writing and producing documentaries in the U.S. Her latest film will be shown this spring, Black Self Expression Through The Creative Arts.

DAVID SLAVITT/HENRY SUTTON
Two careers, two names, but one writer. HENRY SUTTON writes books (The Exhibitionist and The Joyous) that support the poet and talented writer DAVID SLAVITT, a successful and legitimate system for both.

GAY TALESE
Author of The Kingdom and The Power, the definitive history of the New York Times. Mr. Talese is a popular figure in magazines and newspapers. He has appeared regularly in all leading publications.

ROBERT THEOBALD
Author of An Alternative Future for America, he is now at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles. Mr. Theobald is a brilliant theoretician, popular in student dialogue sessions about the New Right and the New Left (which are one and the same) according to Mr. Theobald.

RICHARD WALTON
United Nations Voice of America correspondent, and author of The Romanist of Power, the story of Adolf Stevenson at the U.N.

CHARLES GUOENHEIM
Producer, writer and director of political documentaries, Mr. Guoenheim created the series, "On the Side of the People," which was shown as a tribute to him at the Democratic convention, 1966.

JAMES HAGGERTY
Former Press Secretary to President Dwight D. Eisenhower, he is now Vice President in charge of Corporate Relations for the American Broadcasting Companies, Inc.

GORDON HALL
Research specialist and authority on political fringe movements that embrace freedom, "extremism is a sickness of the 60's."

ANDREW HATCHER
Former Associate Press Secretary to President John F. Kennedy, Mr. Hatcher has been a Civil Rights leader since the days when the movement was nascent. His was an influential voice in formulating the official foreign policy of the New Frontier.

DR. ROBERT HAVIGHURST
A leading scholar in the field of sociology, Dr. Havighurst has developed a personal philosophy of development and education of gifted children. Dr. Havighurst is Chairman of the Department of Education and Human Development, Univ. Chicago.

DR. ALBERT HIBBS
Science editor of TIME, Senator that Laboratory of NASA's Jet Propulsion Space Snaillies and the TV cameras for lunar exploration.

RUSSELL KIRK
Author of The Conservative Mind, Mr. Kirk is the foremost conservative thinker in Europe and North America.

JONATHAN KOZOL
Author of Death in An Early Age, and a prize winning first novel, The Fame of Popper, Mr. Kozol is dedicated to a personal crusade for better education in ghetto schools.

GAIL KUBIK
Winner of the Prix de Rome, Pulitzer Prize and an Academy Award, Mr. Kubik has an international background among the young avant-garde musicians. He gives his full support to the "new" music, its unfamiliar sounds, and its importance in the cultural revolution.

MARK LANE
Attorney, and author of Back to the Future, Mr. Lane's publication in the Kennedy assassination, Chicago Eye Witness, 1966, reports on demonstrations during the 1968 Democratic convention.

DR. RALPH LAPP
Scientist, author of The Weapons Culture, and one of the group of Manhattan Project scientists. Dr. Lapp gives a comprehensive lecture on "the weapons culture" in America, the involvement of our universities in government armaments and defense projects, and many other pertinent aspects of our technological society.

JOHN LEWIS
Former Director of SNCC, Lewis returned to the South and a policy of structured change, and has founded Black Power. He will always be one of the most remembered men of the 1960 sit-ins, and 1961 Freedom rides.

ROLIO MAY, M.D.
Psychanalyst, author and leader of the existential school of psychoanalysis.

MERCEDES McCAMBRIDGE
Presents the Sarah Siddons interpretation of the most memorable female characters from Shakespeare's comedies and tragedies. Miss McCambridge is an actor's-actor in every respect.

SHEPHEARD MEAD
Author of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, escaped from a career on Madison Avenue that was a source of material for his best seller. From his home in England he wrote, How To Live Like a Lord Without Really Trying.

FRANCOIS MITTERRAND
Leader of the non-Communist Federation of the (French) Left, was narrowly defeated by De Gaulle in 1964. He continues to be an active and formidable political figure, and challenge to the Gaullist regime.

DR. ASHLEY MONTAGU
Anthropologist, writer, and lecturer; author of The Making of Man, Being Human, Man in Peace, and dozens of published papers. The Natural Superiority of Women is one of his most requested lectures.

DAY TYLER MOORE
Former chief of the O.S.S. in Cairo, Egypt, he has applied his WWII talent and training to tracking down some of our more colorful frauds and imposters. He speaks on Spy Warfare and Espionage.

CALVIN HOFFMAN
Spartan scholar, and author of The Making of the American Mind. He has written a book to search for answers to the greatest literary mystery in history.

GREGELLA HOLLAND
Author of four historical novels, Miss Holland is the youngest and most prolific writer in this field. She is a superb researcher, as well as a unique and talented young writer.

ABBIE HOFFMAN
Leader of the YIPPIES, and author of Revolution for the Hell of It. The Hoffman philosophy is by no means frivolous, it is one man's truth about student protest and other phenomena.

ROY INNIS
National Director of CORE, and brilliant debater on topics that concern Black Power, separatism in the ghetto community, and Community Self-Determination — an Alternative to Chaos.

MAYNARD H. JACKSON, JR.
The young black attorney who unsuccessfully ran against Sen. Herman Tamm in the 1964 election. He has been elected to a candidate for mayor, and will campaign for the first black mayor of a major southern city.

HERMAN KAHN
Consulting scientist to top level government agencies. Director of the Hudson Institute, political analyst, author of many technical books on thermonuclear war, escalation, and Vietnam. Author of Year 2000.

GABRIEL LONGO
Author of Spilled Pears and himself a poet. He challenges the traditional American literary establishment, which, he says, produces immature art. His topic: After Growing Up.

W. FRANCIS LUCAS
Poet, novelist, literary critic, and African scholar. He analyzes the work of contemporary black American poets, dramatists, and novelists.

NANA MAHOMO
Leader of the historic March on Cape Town, this "excellent man" lives in exile in Geneva, writing his book on the revolution in South Africa. He read law at Grey's Inn, London, and received his doctorate at M. I. T.

MAXWELL, MALTZ, M.D.
Author of Psycho-Cybernetics, and contributor to Reader's Digest of articles that include Your Built-In Secret Mechanisms and related topics.

FRANK MANKIEWICZ
A career journalist, newspaper editor, syndicated columnist, and attorney. During the White House years of the Kennedy's, and until the death of Sen. Robert Kennedy, Mr. Mankiewicz was active in Democratic politics.

PAMELA MASON
A stage, screen, and television writer. Mrs. Mason is also a writer who is well qualified to speak on the subject of Life After Marriage. She is a witty and beautiful guest lecturer and opinion maker.

JAMES MOSELEY
Editor of Uprock, and founder of the Science and Research Society. He is also the editor of Saucer News.

RAY MUNGO
Founder of the Liberation News Service, the student underground news service being used by nearly every college newspaper in America, as well as several major metropolitan dailies.

DR. FERENC NAGY
Former Prime Minister of Hungary, Dr. Nagy is an authority on Soviet and Communist affairs, both from his background in Hungary and his activities in Washington. He is one of the most widely traveled observers of the world scene.

HOWARD NEMEROV
Author and poet, Dr. Nemerov is a professor of English at Brandeis University, consultant to the Library of Congress, and recipient of the Kenyon Review Fellowship.

TOM NOEL
A latter day Mark Twain, the eminent of the American writer who is delighted to amuse his audience with the riverboat humor of Twain in "Mark Twain at Home."

JOHN PERREAULT
A well known name among the young poets, Mr. Perreault has received the National Endowment for the Arts. Loaf, his latest book of poems was published in March 1969.